GreenStar Celebrations!

Bike To Work Day was June 28th and the Sonnenalp had 24 employees who used their own power to get to work! The Sonnenalp partnered with ECOTrails to sponsor a Bike-to-Work station at Mayor's Park—participants enjoyed breakfast and bike freebies such as T-shirts, socks, and bells. Michelle Benedict was interviewed by Plum TV on the event and she gave great kudos to the Sonnenalp for all our volunteering efforts. Thanks Michelle! Say 'great job' to these employees: Harry Genser, Thad Ellis, Billy Zorella, Phil Eyrich, Michelle Benedict, Mario Hluch, JP Quidore, Greg Lestikow, Kristin Johnson, Renae Weygandt, Michelle Gennett, Nathan Free, Steven Teaver, Babsi Zehrenthofer, Jeremy Jones, Andrea Winkler, Thomas Bitterman, Jeff Hulse, Daniel Morris, Paul Thering, Nicole Baur, Mark Sweeny, Erik Gruenwald, and Willi Mayr.

The Sonnenalp's 2nd Bike Trail Cleanup for the year was held on July 11th. Many employees turned out for this great event which ended in some libations at Agave Restaurant. Join us for the 3rd and final bike trail cleanup in September/October.

George Pollerus is getting the bike trail clean! And the gang celebrates afterwards!

The Sonnenalp of Vail Foundation would like to extend an enormous to everyone who contributed to making the 8th Scramble Against Cancer a tremendous success!

Thank You

Due to your amazing efforts, the Foundation was able to raise approximately $115,000 this year despite Mother Nature's decision to through a little thunder and lightening into the mix. Volunteers helped with registration, breakfast, giftbags, beer tents, photography, hole-in-one witnessing, etc. Good deeds are so rewarding!
